CLASS INFO

This class will be conducted entirely on Canvas. There are no scheduled meeting times.

INSTRUCTOR INFORMATION

Julia Franklin, PhD, CHES
Associate Professor (Lecturer)
julia.franklin@health.utah.edu
Stewart Building, Room 102A
Office hours (via Zoom): Tuesdays 12:30pm-2:30pm and Wednesdays 12pm-2pm

TEACHING ASSISTANT

Sunku Kwon, MS, LAT, ATC
sunk.kwon@utah.edu
Location: HPER W 107

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this class is to provide an introduction to assessment instruments, data collection, research design, and statistical analysis. Students will have the opportunity to learn about current research in health education. Fulfills Quantitative Intensive (QI) Requirement.
PRE- OR CO-REQUISITES

C- or better in WRTG 2010 and MATH 1040 (OR MATH 1070 OR SOC 3112 OR FCS 3210 OR PSY 3000) AND Full Major status in Health and Kinesiology.

REQUIRED MATERIAL

There is no textbook for this class. Materials will be posted on Canvas.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course, you will be able to:

- Outline and explain the steps in the research process (i.e., the scientific method).
- Demonstrate the ability to gather data using appropriate data collection methods and measurement instruments; perform basic analytical techniques to analyze that data; interpret the results of the analyses; and draw conclusions based on those results.
- Effectively use SPSS, a statistical software package, to analyze data; specifically, how to calculate descriptive statistics, how to compare group mean scores, and how to determine relationships.
- Critique study findings to discern accurate interpretations and draw logical conclusions.
- Distinguish between ethical and unethical behavior in research.

TEACHING AND LEARNING METHODS

This course will be conducted entirely via Canvas. There will be modules posted throughout the semester. Within each module, content will be provided in the form of recorded lectures, readings, videos, and other such materials.

This is not a self-paced course in which all materials are posted upfront and you complete the work at your own discretion. Modules will be made available according to the course schedule and assignments will have specific due dates.

Please keep in mind that as a 3-credit hour course that does not actually meet in person, you can expect to spend approximately 6-9 hours a week reviewing course materials and completing written assignments.
UOnline Student Expectations

Though the online format allows students greater flexibility to complete their work, this course does have a structure and timeline! As such, the following is expected of all students in this class:

- Students must be self-motivated, organized, and willing to stay on top of their schedule. Students should take control of their learning while in this course.
- Students are expected to follow the Core Rules of Netiquette (http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html) at all times while participating in the class and communicating with others.
- Students will log in to the course a minimum of 3 times per week.
- Students are not expected to interact with their classmates in person. Students may be expected to work with classmates via online communication options like Canvas Discussions, video conferencing, or another communication technologies of choice (Groupme, FaceTime, Google Hangouts, etc).
- Students will regularly check for course updates and will update their Canvas notification settings to ensure they receive timely notifications from the course.
- Students will contact their instructor or teaching assistant in a timely manner if they have any questions, are struggling with course materials, or need further assistance from their instructor.
  - If you do not hear back within 3 days after sending a message, please contact your instructor/TA again.
- Students will follow all official University of Utah policies regarding interpersonal conduct, academic dishonesty, and other rights and responsibilities of students outlined in the University of Utah Student Handbook and Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities.
  - If you have any questions about this, please contact the Dean of Students.

UOnline Instructor Expectations

Your course instructor is an expert in the topics you will learn about this semester. Your instructor is your mentor and facilitator of the classroom experience, aided by teaching assistants. Instructors are committed to:

- The instructor will design the course to include lectures, learning materials, and assignments that are accessible and provide students with opportunities to learn and practice course content.
- The instructor and teaching assistants will ensure that the course remains a safe space where students can engage with difficult content thoughtfully and respectfully.
- The instructor and teaching assistants will interact with the class regularly via announcements, virtual office hours (one-on-one video conferencing), emails/the Canvas Inbox, feedback on assignments, and comments on Discussions, among other methods.
- The instructor and teaching assistants will respond to students in a timely manner: within 48 hours, not including weekends and holidays.
- The instructor and teaching assistants will be available for individual consultation via virtual office hours (one-on-one video conferencing), email, or phone and will not require students to meet in person.
- The instructor and teaching assistants will provide relevant feedback in a timely manner.
- The instructor and teaching assistants will follow all official University of Utah policies regarding interpersonal conduct, accommodations, and other important duties.

LEARNING ASSESSMENTS

There will be a variety of assignments in this class. The following is an overview of what to expect; detailed instructions will be posted on Canvas. Due dates are listed in the Course Schedule.

Pregame Activities (2 x 20 points)
- These activities are designed to prepare you for the course. You need to complete these activities before any of the course modules will become available.

Check Your Knowledge (CYK) Quizzes (4 x 10 points each)
- You will need to complete a CYK Quiz to ensure you are understanding the materials provided. Once you successfully complete a quiz, you can then move on to the next level of assignment.

Article Breakdown (3 x 10 points each)
- On three separate occasions, you will be asked to read a published research article and answer specific questions to demonstrate comprehension.

Research Activity (4 parts, total of 80 points)
- As part of an online group, you will develop research questions, create measurement instruments, gather data, analyze that data, and interpret your findings.

SPSS Practice Activities (25 points total)
- There will be five statistical procedures for data analysis discussed in this course. You will be given step-by-step instructions for completing each procedure in SPSS, along with a corresponding practice activity.

Data Analysis and Interpretation (55 points)
You will be given data to analyze and a set of corresponding questions. You will need to know how to properly conduct the analysis in SPSS, and how to interpret the results of your analyses.

Final Project (approximately 50 points)

Throughout the semester, you participated in an online group research activity. Your final project will be to create a video/online presentation of the process and outcomes of group's work. This final project will be done individually.

Zoom On (5 points total)

Within each of the 5 modules, I will hold 30-minute Zoom sessions where small groups of us can get together and chat. Each scheduled Zoom session will have multiple time slots; you will need to sign up for a time slot that works best for you. You are welcome to attend as many sessions as you'd like, but you will be required to attend at least 1 of these sessions over the course of the semester to earn 5 points.

COURSE POLICIES

Submitting Assignments

- All assignments, unless otherwise announced, must be submitted to the designated area of Canvas. Do not submit assignments via email.
- Be sure when turning in an assignment via Canvas that you are attaching the correct file to be graded.
- You are responsible for submitting the assignment with the required naming convention, correct file extension, and using the software type and version required for the assignment. See assignment instructions for acceptable formats.
- It is your responsibility to maintain your computer and related equipment in order to participate in the online nature of the course.
- Discussion threads, e-mails, Zoom meetings, and chat rooms are all considered to be equivalent to classrooms, and student behavior within those environments shall conform to the University of Utah Student Code. Specifically:
  - Posting photos or comments that would be off-topic in a classroom are still off-topic in an online posting.
  - Off-color language and photos are never appropriate.
  - Using angry or abusive language is called "flaming", is not acceptable, and will be dealt with according to the Student Code.
  - Course e-mails, e-journals, and other online course communications are part of the classroom and as such, are University property and subject to GRAMA regulations and the Student Code. Privacy regarding these communications between correspondents must not be assumed and should be mutually agreed upon in advance, in writing.

Late Assignments

- Late assignments will not be accepted - no exceptions.

Grading

Grading for this course

- All learning assessments will be graded within 2 weeks of submission.
- I do not offer opportunities to make up late or missed assignments, and I do not offer opportunities to earn additional points. I determine if and when I might offer extra credit points. Please do not ask.
- Grades will be calculated as total number of points earned divided by total number of possible points; percentages will then be rounded to the nearest whole number and a letter grade assigned based on the following grading scale.

Accommodations

Disclaimer

Accommodations will be considered on an individual basis and may require documentation.

Please contact your instructor and/or teaching assistant as soon as possible (preferably shortly before the semester begins) to request accommodations of any kind.
Content Warnings

Please be aware that some materials and discussions within this course may contain challenging content. Your instructor may choose to notify students of potentially difficult content (e.g. explicit language, graphic images, violent themes, etc.) throughout the course.

If there are specific subjects that you need advanced notice for, please contact your instructor at the beginning of the semester.

Extreme personal circumstances

Please contact your instructor as soon as possible if an extreme personal circumstance (hospitalization, death of a close relative, natural disaster, etc.) is interfering with your ability to complete your work.

Religious Practice

To request an accommodation for religious practices, contact your instructor at the beginning of the semester.

Active Duty Military

If you are student on active duty with the military and experience issues that prevent you from participating in the course because of deployment or service responsibilities, contact your instructor as soon as possible to discuss appropriate accommodations.

Disability Access

All written information in this course can be made available in an alternative format with prior notification to the Center for Disability Services (CDS). CDS will work with you and the instructor to make arrangements for accommodations. Prior notice is appreciated. To read the full accommodations policy for the University of Utah, please see Section Q of the Instruction & Evaluation regulations.

If you will need accommodations in this class, contact:

Changes to the Syllabus
This syllabus is not a contract. It is meant to serve as an outline and guide for your course. Please note that your instructor may modify it to accommodate the needs of your class.

You will be notified of any changes to the Syllabus.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

COVID-19 Campus Guidelines

Students are required to self-report if they test positive for COVID-19. To report, please contact:

COVID-19 Central @ The U
📞 801-213-2874
🌐 coronavirus.utah.edu (https://coronavirus.utah.edu/)

To reduce the spread of COVID-19 on campus, face coverings are required in all in-person classes for both students and faculty.

Based on CDC guidelines, the University requires everyone to wear face coverings in shared public spaces on campus. If you repeatedly fail to wear a face covering in class, you may be referred to the Dean of Students for a possible violation of the Student Code.

Some courses may require attendance due to hands-on coursework. Please read the syllabus and attendance requirements for the course thoroughly.

Some students may qualify for accommodations & exemptions from these guidelines through the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Accommodations should be obtained prior to the first day of class.

If you believe you meet these criteria, contact:

Drop/Withdrawal Policies

Students may drop a course within the first two weeks of a given semester without any penalties.

Students may officially withdraw (W) from a class or all classes after the drop deadline through the midpoint of a course. A “W” grade is recorded on the transcript and appropriate tuition/fees are assessed. The grade “W” is not used in calculating the student’s GPA.

For deadlines to withdraw from full-term, first, and second session classes, see the U's Academic Calendar.

Plagiarism & Cheating

It is assumed that all work submitted to your instructor is your own work. When you have used ideas of others, you must properly indicate that you have done so.

Plagiarism and cheating are serious offenses and may be punished by failure on an individual assignment, and/or failure in the course. Academic misconduct, according to the University of Utah Student Code,

“...Includes, but is not limited to, cheating, misrepresenting one’s work, inappropriately collaborating, plagiarism, and fabrication or falsification of information...It also includes facilitating academic misconduct by intentionally helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic misconduct.”

For details on plagiarism and other important course conduct issues, see the U's Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities.

Addressing Sexual Misconduct

Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender (which includes sexual orientation and gender identity/expression) is a civil rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, color, religion, age, status as a person with a disability, veteran’s status, or genetic information.

If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you are encouraged to report it to university officials:

Undocumented Students

Immigration is a complex phenomenon with broad impact—those who are directly affected by it, as well as those who are indirectly affected by their relationships with family members, friends, and loved ones. If your immigration status presents obstacles that prevent you from engaging in specific activities or fulfilling specific course criteria, confidential arrangements may be requested from the Dream Center.

Arrangements with the Dream Center will not jeopardize your student status, your financial aid, or any other part of your residence. The Dream Center offers a wide range of resources to support undocumented students (with and without DACA) as well as students from mixed-status families.

Inclusivity at the U

The Office for Inclusive Excellence is here to engage, support, and advance an environment fostering the values of respect, diversity, equity, inclusivity, and academic excellence for students in our increasingly global campus community. They also handle reports of bias in the classroom as outlined below:

> Bias or hate incidents consist of speech, conduct, or some other form of expression or action that is motivated wholly or in part by prejudice or bias whose impact discriminates, demeans, embarrasses, assigns stereotypes, harasses, or excludes individuals because of their race, color, ethnicity, national origin, language, sex, size, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, disability, age, or religion.
