

Health Professions LEAP with Dr. Rachel Borup

Interested in healthcare? Thinking about becoming a doctor or nurse? Want to understand inequalities in healthcare and learn how you can become an agent of change? Health Professions LEAP is for you! This small, discussion-based class for first-year students will help you learn how to read, think and write critically, conduct research, make friends, and acquire cultural competence for living and working in a diverse world.

Welcome message from Dr. Borup

Questions? Email r.borup@utah.edu

This class satisfies Humanities (HF) and Diversity (DV)
General Education Requirements

Required Books:

