COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is a basic course in trigonometry (see detailed learning objectives below for more about content). A C or better in Math 1050 is a prerequisite, and a C or better in this course couples with that as a prerequisite for Math 1210. This course fulfills the University QA requirement.

COURSE DETAILS

- Course Type: Interactive Video Conferencing (IVC - synchronous online)
- Location & Meeting Times: MWF 11:50-12:40 online
- Attendance & Punctuality: TBD
- Course Materials:
 - Textbook: The textbook for this course is integrated into Canvas and provided at no cost.
- Technical requirements:
 - At least portions of this course on certain dates and days of the week will be conducted online. You should have access to a sufficiently strong internet connection to support this video conference.
 - Quizzes and exams will be taken with Zoom proctoring. For this, you will need in addition to the steady internet connection a connected camera (on a smartphone or laptop).
 - Quizzes and exams will be submitted digitally, so some form of digitizing technology will be needed. This could be a scanner, but there are excellent alternative scanning apps for smartphones. Quizzes and exams must be submitted as single PDF files. There are many scanning apps available for Android and IOS, some examples are: https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.adobe.scan.android&hl=en_US
 - <https://apps.apple.com/us/app/adobe-scan-digital-pdf-scanner/id1199564834>
- Syllabus subject to change: This syllabus is meant to serve as an outline and guide for our course. Please note that I may modify it with reasonable notice to you. I may also modify the Course Schedule to accommodate the needs of our class. Any changes will be announced in class and posted on Canvas.

COURSE EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Understand trigonometric function definitions in the context of right triangles and on the unit circle.
2. Graph basic trigonometric functions and those with basic transformations. Be able to write an equation given a graph. Identify amplitude, periods, phase shifts, and asymptotes from graphic and algebraic representations of functions.
3. Represent and solve physical world problems using trigonometric functions.
4. Use trigonometric inverses correctly, understanding the domain/range restrictions.
5. Verify trigonometric identities, using proper logic and use trigonometric identities to evaluate expressions.
6. Solve trigonometric equations.
7. Solve for all measurements in any triangle, using the Pythagorean Theorem, trigonometric functions, the Law of Sines, and Law of Cosines in a variety of contexts and applications.
8. Be able to convert to and from rectangular and trigonometric forms of complex numbers and polar and rectangular forms of coordinates.
9. Graph complex numbers in a plane, perform operations on such numbers and interpret this graphically, and use DeMoivre's theorem to find roots and powers of complex numbers.
10. Understand geometry and arithmetic operations with vectors and use vectors in application problems.
11. Give an equation or verbal description for a conic given a graph of the conic; given an equation of a conic, identify the conic and be able to graph it and describe its attributes.

COURSE DESIGN

Clearly articulate the teaching strategies that will be utilized (e.g. lecture, discussion, journal club, etc.) and the rationale for using them. Specify which course components will take place in-person (if applicable), via Zoom, etc., and what the expectations are for synchronous course elements, including assessments (e.g. "This course will use instructor driven online lectures that will be delivered via Zoom video conferencing on canvas during class days and times. All assessments for this course will also be held during class time via canvas and zoom." Describe whether students will need to prepare before class, whether there will be graded in-class components (e.g. clicker questions), general format for lecture sessions, etc. Mention any regular handouts students will receive. If lecture slides are made available, mention the specifics (e.g. "lecture slides will be available on Canvas by 5pm the day before the lecture"). Instructors may also include a statement of teaching philosophy.

COMMUNICATION

- All course materials, such as lecture slides, assignments, solutions, grades, etc. will be posted on the Course Canvas site. Class announcements will be done via Canvas. You will be responsible for any information contained in them as well as the information announced in class.
- It is also your responsibility to check your Canvas messages regularly. There will be occasions during the semester that we may need to reach out to you individually (e.g. regarding a grade or assignment) and it is in your best interest to respond promptly.
- Feel free to contact me by email or Canvas message. I will do my best to answer emails promptly. I would like to encourage you to email me only if it is something personal that requires individual attention, if instead you have questions about logistics of the class, course material and assignments, and anything else your classmates may wonder as well, please post a question on the Discussions Board instead. This way the information is shared quickly to the entire class, and each of you can benefit from seeing other classmates' questions.
- I will always do my best to ensure the communication relevant to the course is clear and transparent, it is your responsibility as well to keep yourself updated by regularly checking: the announcements on Canvas, your Umail, the posts on the Discussions Board, and pay attention to the announcements given in class and Discussion Section.
- The online homework system includes an "Ask" feature that may also be used to communicate with me.
- Students are expected to log in and check canvas every day for posted announcements and assignments. Students are also strongly advised to set up notifications for canvas so they do not miss any important notifications.

NETIQUETTE - EXPECTATIONS FOR ONLINE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

- Classroom equivalency: Respectful participation in all aspects of the course will make our time together productive and engaging. Zoom lectures, discussion threads, emails and canvas are all considered equivalent to classrooms and student behavior within those environments shall conform to the student code. Specifically:
 - Posting photos or comments that would be off-topic in a classroom are still off-topic in an online posting.
 - Disrespectful language and photos are never appropriate.
 - Using angry or abusive language is not acceptable, and will be dealt with according to the Student Code. The instructor may remove online postings that are inappropriate.
 - Do not use ALL CAPS, except for titles, or overuse certain punctuation marks such as exclamation points and question marks.
 - Course e-mails, e-journals, and other online course communications are part of the classroom and as such, are University property and subject to the Student Code. Privacy regarding these communications between correspondents must not be assumed and should be mutually agreed upon in advance, in writing.
- Other expectations for online communication (on Discussion Board, Emails, Zoom chat etc):
 - Treat your instructor, teaching team and classmates with respect in email or any other communication.
 - Remember that all college level communication should have correct spelling and grammar (this includes discussion boards).
 - Avoid slang terms such as "wassup?" and texting abbreviations such as "u" instead of "you."
 - Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm as tone is sometimes lost in an email or discussion post and your message might be taken seriously or be offensive to others.
 - Be careful with personal information (both yours and others).
- Online submissions: You are responsible for submitting the assignment with the required naming convention, correct file extension, and using the software type and version required for the assignment.

ASSIGNMENTS, ASSESSMENT & GRADING

Semester letter grades will be converted from numerical semester scores (N) as follows:

$100 \geq N \geq 93$: A	$93 > N \geq 90$: A-
$90 > N \geq 88$: B+	$88 > N \geq 83$: B	$83 > N \geq 80$: B-
$80 > N \geq 78$: C+	$78 > N \geq 73$: C	$73 > N \geq 70$: C-
$70 > N \geq 68$: D+	$68 > N \geq 63$: D	$63 > N \geq 60$: D-
$60 > N$:E

The numerical grade consists of several components:

- 17% of final grade: Homework. Homework is delivered online through the IMathAS system. These homeworks will be linked through Canvas and are fully online (no file uploads needed). If you think you have caught a mistake in the online homeworks, email me with an explanation of what you think is wrong.
- 13% of final grade: Quizzes. There will be weekly quizzes delivered through Canvas and submitted via file upload. There are 10 quizzes in total, which must be submitted within a given time window. The two lowest quiz scores will be dropped. Quizzes may not be retaken. 3% of this grade is a mandatory quiz on the syllabus that will take place during the first week.
- 60%: There will be three midterm exams which are longer than quizzes. These will also be delivered via Canvas and submitted via file upload. Each midterm counts for 20% of your final grade.
- 10%: The final exam will offer an opportunity to show mastery of topics after the time they were covered in the course. It is worth only a small portion of your final grade, but if mastery of topics is shown on the final (by scoring higher on the final than the second lowest midterm score), the final exam grade will also replace the second lowest midterm score (the lowest midterm score is dropped).

It is the student's responsibility to ensure the accuracy of all recorded homework, quizzes, online assignments, and exam grades. Also you should keep as record all your graded assignments. If you see any error in your grades on Canvas, reach out to the instructor as soon as possible, or at the latest within two weeks from when the assignment was returned.

Incompletes: According to university policy, to be considered for an incomplete, a student must have 20% or less of the course work remaining and be passing the course with a C or better. You must request an incomplete grade and I will consider giving that grade only under exceptional circumstances.

Plagiarism: Students must adhere to the standards of academic integrity for this course. In particular, assessments that are not specifically labelled as being group work should be completed without outside help. We encourage you to make use of other internet sources in the learning process and for assistance on homework, but online resources are not to be used during quizzes or exams. Incidences of academic dishonesty will result at a minimum of a zero grade for that particular assignment, or possible stricter sanctions in accordance with University policy (see below).

ACADEMIC CODE OF CONDUCT

Students are encouraged to review the Student Code for the University of Utah: <https://regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-400.php>. In order to ensure that the highest standards of academic conduct are promoted and supported at the University, students must adhere to generally accepted standards of academic honesty, including but not limited to refraining from cheating, plagiarizing, research misconduct, misrepresenting one's work, and/or inappropriately collaborating. A student who engages in academic misconduct as defined in Part I.B. may be subject to academic sanctions including but not limited to a grade reduction, failing grade, probation, suspension or dismissal from the program or the University, or revocation of the student's degree or certificate. Sanctions may also include community service, a written reprimand, and/or a written statement of misconduct that can be put into an appropriate record maintained for purposes of the profession or discipline for which the student is preparing.
