COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course encourages students to take a part in...
- professional development
- networking with diplomats and officials at the National Council on U.S.-Arab Relations
- leadership opportunities & internship opportunities available for only students who participated in Model Arab League
- fostering relations with students from other universities

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS
- attend regional and national conferences
- visit embassies in D.C.
- meet with the agencies in Washington, D.C.
- option to be selected to participate in an all-paid study/visit by the National Council on US-Arab Relations

MIDE 4107
TH, 2:00PM - 3:20PM
BUC 203
3 credit hours
*no prerequisite needed
*fulfills the Middle East Studies’ signature experience

INSTRUCTOR
Prof. April Sanders-Aboulila
aaboulila@psych.utah.edu

Model Arab League: Bahrain

Photo credit: Hasan Jamali/AP Photo