This is a journal club. Each week we choose a paper from the recent literature and consider the following. What’s the question? Why is it important? How did they tackle it? What did they find? Evolutionary Anthropology is a very big tent and we try to sample widely.