Course Description
The objective of this course is to acquaint the student with fundamental terms, concepts and theories in the origin, nature, and control of deviant behavior. Various dimensions of deviance and its control will be explored including: the meaning of deviance, the origin of deviance, the process of becoming deviant, traditional and conventional theories of deviance, institutional and non-institutional careers in deviance, and the correction of deviant behavior. Some attention will be given to the moral, ethical, and legal implications of deviance as well as the relationship between deviance and sociological theory.

The class is based on an "online" learning style format. Course content includes assigned readings in the texts, online discussions, lectures, and assignments. Please check Canvas on a daily basis for announcements and updated course information. All class communication will be received via Canvas or by email. All of the quizzes for this class will be administered online.

Discussions
You are required to participate in each of the 4 discussion sessions. All discussions will be offered through Canvas. You are expected to make a meaningful and thoughtful response to the discussion question. Dialogue with other students is encouraged.

To ensure that you receive full credit in for a discussion, make sure that you answer item by item any questions posed by the discussion and that you participate in the discussion by reading the other posts and then engaging in the discussion. A “single” post does not meet the criteria for engaging in the discussion. It is not uncommon for some students to post six or seven posts in the course of a discussion. The discussion topics are designed to help you apply critical thinking skills to contemporary problems engender by the course. You are encouraged to express your position, defend it and/or modify it as you gain a fuller understanding of the perspectives surrounding the discussion topic.

In order to gain full credit for the discussion you should follow and participate in the discussion on a daily basis while it is active. You should plan on reading the posts on a daily basis and making posts on a daily basis when the discussion is active.

Discussion sessions will not be extended beyond the end date. Makeup discussion sessions will not be offered. If you miss a discussion session you should plan on participating in the next discussion. If you have trouble “posting” a discussion in Canvas, please get assistance through the Canvas help desk at (801) 585-6112 (option 2) and then notify me either by email or by phone. The discussions will last for 4 days. The dates of the discussions are as follows:

Discussion Schedule
- Discussion 1: September 17 – September 20
- Discussion 2: October 1 – October 4
- Discussion 3: October 22 – October 25
- Discussion 4: November 5 – November 8

Declarations

Academic Misconduct
Per University of Utah regulations (Policy # 6-400), “A student who engages in academic misconduct,” as defined in Part I.B. and including, but not limited to, cheating, falsification, or plagiarism, “may be subject to academic sanctions including but not limited to a grade reduction, failing grade, probation, suspension or dismissal from the program or the University, or revocation of the student’s degree or certificate. Sanctions may also include community service, a written reprimand, and/or a written statement of misconduct that can be put into an appropriate record maintained for purposes of the profession or discipline for which the student is preparing.” Please refer to the Student Code for full elaboration of student academic and behavioral misconduct policies (http://regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-400.php).

Addressing Sexual Misconduct
Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender (which includes sexual orientation and gender identity/expression) is a Civil Rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, color, religion, age, status as a person with a disability, veteran’s status or genetic information. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you are encouraged to report it to the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, 135 Park Building, 801-581-8365, or the Office of the Dean of Students, 270 Union Building, 801-581-7066. For support and confidential consultation, contact the Center for Student Wellness, 426 SSB, and (801) 581-7776. To report to the police, contact the Department of Public Safety, 801-585-2677(COPS).

Safety
The University of Utah values the safety of all campus community members. To report suspicious activity or to request a courtesy escort, call campus police at 801-585-COPS (801-585-2677). You will receive important emergency alerts and safety messages regarding campus safety via text message.
