Textbook: The textbook is available online at: https://www.mathedpage.org/attc/attc.html
We will focus on chapters 1-8 and 13, but there is no need to print these chapters out.

Course Description: This course is a course in basic algebra that emphasizes depth, rather than breadth. We will investigate how algebraic concepts connect with the elementary school curriculum, and how algebra generalizes elementary arithmetic. The use of manipulatives and alternate representations will pervade the course. Students will be encouraged to make use of argumentation based on these representations to explain solutions to problems encountered in algebra.

Expected Learning Outcomes: By the end of the course, students will be expected to:
1. Understand the difference between algebraic expressions and equations.
2. Represent algebraic expressions and equations up to second degree using algebra tiles.
3. Simplify expressions and solve equations, using argumentation based on manipulatives.
4. Represent functions and move between representations using words, expressions, tables, Cartesian graphs, and function diagrams.
5. Connect polynomial algebra to elementary arithmetic.
6. Solve problems by observing patterns, especially those in arithmetic and geometric sequences.
7. Apply the Fundamental Counting Principle to solve basic probability and combinatorial problems.

Assessment:

- Homework (15%): Short homework assignments will be due daily.
- Quizzes (6 total, 15%, lowest dropped): Every other Friday, beginning in the first week, there will be a roughly 40 minute quiz on the week’s material. See the schedule on Canvas.
- Midterms (3 - 15% each): There will be three midterm exams, on September 13, October 21, and November 15.
- Final Exam (25%): The final exam will be in the usual classroom on the last day of class Dec. 4.

Grades will be calculated using the standard scale:

Policies and expectations:
In order to ensure a vibrant learning environment in which we may discuss coursework, no late assignments or labs will be accepted. Similarly, quizzes and exams may not be made up in advance or after the fact without serious extenuating circumstances. The University of Utah student code allows for making up quizzes or exams in advance for “officially sanctioned University Activities ..., or government obligations, or religious obligations”. Please contact me at least one week in advance of any such obligations to arrange accommodation.

In general, keep your devices put away during class. Take active part in class discussions and activities. Calculators, but not smart devices are allowed on quizzes and exams.
