This course evaluates issues of environmental quality, social justice and resistance to environmental degradation. It will analyze ongoing struggles of Tribal nations and Indigenous peoples to protect lands and sacred sites, including Mauna Kea, Standing Rock, Bears Ears and Sagorea Te. Applying Native studies theory, we will analyze the long-term effect of environmental destruction to Tribal nations and their lands/waters.

Dr. Charles Sepulveda
Ethnic Studies 4870
Wednesday 12:55-3:45PM
HPR N 242